INSTRUCTIONS

SECTION 1: TYPE OF EMPLOYMENT

Law Enforcement Officer: "Any person employed by the state or any political subdivision of the state for the purpose of detecting and preventing crime and enforcing laws or ordinances, and who is authorized to make arrests for violations of the laws or ordinances the person is employed to enforce."

Jail Officer: "Any person employed by any political subdivision of the state for the purpose of supervising, controlling or maintaining a jail or the persons confined in a jail. 'Jail officer' includes officers regardless of whether they have been sworn regarding their duties or whether they serve on a full-time basis."

Secure Detention Officer: "Any person employed by any political subdivision of the state to supervise, control or maintain a secure detention facility or the persons confined in a secure detention facility. 'Secure detention officer' includes officers regardless of whether they have been sworn regarding their duties or whether they serve on a full-time basis."

Dual Status Officer: "Any person employed as a law enforcement officer and a jail or secure detention officer as defined above."

Tribal Law Enforcement Officer: "A person who is employed by a tribe for the purpose of detecting and preventing crime and enforcing the tribe's law or ordinances, who is authorized by the tribe to make arrests of Indian persons for violations of the tribe's laws or ordinances and who agrees to accept the duties of law enforcement officers under the laws of this state."

Primary Employer: "The employer of a full-time officer or the initial employer of a part-time officer."

Secondary Employer: "The second employer of an officer." The officer will already be employed by another agency within an employment category (law enforcement, jail, or secure detention).

SECTION 2: PHYSICAL DESCRIPTORS AND CITIZENSHIP

Information on sex and race or national origin is collected for statistical purposes only.

SECTION 3: FINGERPRINTS

Fingerprints must be submitted with Form 303 or the form will be returned to the agency.
IMPORTANT: Descriptive data must be completed.

SECTION 4: EDUCATION

SECTION 5: MEDICAL EXAMINATION

Do not send copies of medical examinations or other medical records. Such records will be returned. The Americans with Disabilities Act requires that medical information be kept by the employer in separate files and treated as confidential.

Tyler J. Peterson
Forest County Sheriff's Office
100 South Park Avenue
Crandon, Wisconsin 54520-1431

Dear Tyler Peterson:

At its December 5, 2006 meeting, the Wisconsin Law Enforcement Standards Board certified you as being qualified to be a law enforcement officer in this state.

Certification powers are granted to the Board under Section 165.85(3)(c) and the issuance of the Board's certificate indicates that you have met the minimum recruitment and training standards identified in Chapters LES 2 and LES 3, Rules of the Wisconsin Law Enforcement Standards Board.

Please accept our sincere congratulations on the successful completion of one of our certified training programs. We expect that your law enforcement career will reflect strict adherence to the highest ethical standards of the profession. We hope that you will not only find the position of law enforcement officer challenging and stimulating but will be motivated to constantly upgrade your professional potential by taking advantage of the multitude of educational and advanced training opportunities available in the police discipline today.

Sincerely,

Dennis Hanson
Director
